

On the evening of the Superbowl Night festivities my family and I were watching the game. We finally had a moment in our busy schedules to sit down and have some family time. Yet this evening was most sadly embarrassing to see a wonderful performer "strip" in front of us. I was terribly applaud by this display of inappropriate behavior. Our world is an ever-changing place that wants to allow entertainment for the masses, but it is the responsibility of the individual to express intelligently good entertainment when sports are publicly displayed. I recommend that when sports is the entertainment let's keep it as sports...a.k.a. football.

Thank you very much for your time and effort in this matter.
Please help us all have a good family night.
